

Cache County

— 1857 —

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Cache County is blessed with a diverse tree canopy and the Cutler Reservoir and Marsh Important Bird Area of global importance; and

WHEREAS, Cache Valley hosts 323 species of birds which are an integral part of food chains and food webs, delight and uplift our hearts with color, motion, and song, pollinate flowers, disperse seeds, and devour pests; and

WHEREAS, Trees and birds include many keystone species essential to the health of our collective future; and

WHEREAS, Arbor and Bird Day highlights the value of trees and birds in our natural environment; and

WHEREAS, Trees cool our streets, sustain our birds, and warm our hearts.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, David Zook, Cache County Executive, do hereby proclaim April 25, 2025 as an Arbor & Bird Day throughout Cache County and urge all citizens to celebrate Arbor & Bird Day and support efforts to protect our trees, woodlands, and birds

FURTHER, I urge all citizens to plant trees to promote the well-being of present and future generations of people and birds.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal on this 25th day of April, 2025.

A handwritten signature of David Nephi Zook in black ink.

David Nephi Zook, Cache County Executive